

JOB LISTING

Adjunct Faculty

Health Education

Position Available: Immediately

Post Date: 02/13/2015

End Date: Open Until Filled

Maryland University of Integrative Health is the leading academic institution for integrative health in the nation. For nearly 40 years, MUIH has educated practitioners in health and wellness through transformative and relationship-centered programs that draw from traditional wisdom and contemporary science. MUIH offers graduate degrees and certificates in a wide range of wellness fields, as well as programs for professional and personal development. In our on-campus Natural Care Center and community outreach settings, we provide compassionate and affordable healthcare from student interns and professional practitioners, and deliver more than 35,000 clinical treatments and consultations each year.

Maryland University of Integrative Health is seeking a highly qualified adjunct faculty member to develop a course for the University's new doctorate programs in Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine. IHED 777 Health Care Systems: From Macro to Micro provides an introduction to the structures, functions, and processes of contemporary health care systems, as well as explores the current delivery of clinical care for a patient. This course will serve as a lens for analysis of the social, political, and economic contexts that influence both the macro and micro levels of a health care system. This course will be offered on campus/face-to-face in Summer 2015 trimester and online in Spring 2016.

Responsibilities/Duties

Responsibilities/duties include, but are not limited to:

- Developing and teaching the assigned course and assuming all responsibilities associated with such
- Assessing student learning outcomes
- Grading and reviewing assignments
- Monitoring student progress and grades
- Preparing and duplicating student materials
- Collaborating with the Academic Director
- Participating in faculty meetings
- Being available for individual coaching/advising of students as required
- Participating in related research if requested
- Performing other duties as assigned
