

JOB LISTING

Adjunct Faculty Integrative Health Sciences

Position Available: March 2015

Post Date: 02/23/2015

End Date: Open Until Filled

Maryland University of Integrative Health is the leading academic institution for integrative health in the nation. For nearly 40 years, MUIH has educated practitioners in health and wellness through transformative and relationship-centered programs that draw from traditional wisdom and contemporary science. MUIH offers graduate degrees and certificates in a wide range of wellness fields, as well as programs for professional and personal development. In our on-campus Natural Care Center and community outreach settings, we provide compassionate and affordable healthcare from student interns and professional practitioners, and deliver more than 35,000 clinical treatments and consultations each year.

Maryland University of Integrative Health is currently conducting a search for a part-time adjunct faculty member for some of its Integrative Health Sciences (ISci) courses. The goal of ISci is to prepare students to understand, evaluate, and communicate the scientific basis of the health care practices in their chosen field.

ISci designs and delivers science courses in alignment with MUIH's philosophy of 'whole' person care and, when applicable, emphasizes the interrelationship between psychological, social, spiritual, and biological processes.

As Integrative Health Sciences continues to grow, opportunities may arise for advancement and promotion, including the possibility of a full-time Instructor position.

Responsibilities/Duties

Responsibilities/duties include, but are not limited to:

- Teaching (including all responsibilities associated with teaching) 6-9-credits a year in Physiology and/or Pathophysiology, either on campus or online
- Participating in related research, if requested
- Assessing student learning outcomes
- Grading and reviewing assignments
- Monitoring student progress and grades
- Preparing and duplicating student materials
- Collaborating with the Academic Director
- Participating in faculty meetings
- Being available for individual coaching/advising of students as required
- Perform other duties as assigned
