Adjunct Faculty Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine

Position Available: Immediately
Posting Date: 03/31/2015
End Date: Open until filled

Maryland University of Integrative Health is the leading academic institution for integrative health in the nation. For nearly 40 years, MUIH has educated practitioners in health and wellness through transformative and relationship-centered programs that draw from traditional wisdom and contemporary science. MUIH offers graduate degrees and certificates in a wide range of wellness fields, as well as programs for professional and personal development. In our on-campus Natural Care Center and community outreach settings, we provide compassionate and affordable healthcare from student interns and professional practitioners, and deliver more than 35,000 clinical treatments and consultations each year.

Maryland University of Integrative Health is currently conducting a search for a part-time adjunct faculty member in Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine to develop and teach online (preferred) or face-to-face two theory courses: Zang/Fu Organ Systems and Patterns of Disharmony I (Fall 2015) and Zang/Fu Organ Systems and Patterns of Disharmony II (Spring 2016). These courses, which are two credits each, cover the TCM/Eight Principle theory of diagnosis and treatments in Chinese Medicine, and will be taught to students with no previous knowledge of this subject.

Course design should be in alignment with MUIH's philosophy of 'whole' person care and, when applicable, emphasize the interrelationship between physical, emotional, and spiritual levels.

Responsibilities/Duties

Responsibilities/duties include, but are not limited to:

- Develop online delivery for assigned courses
- Teach (including all responsibilities associated with teaching) assigned courses
- Assess student learning outcomes
- Grade and review assignments
- Monitor student progress and grades
- Prepare and duplicate student materials
- Collaborate with the Academic Director
- Participate in faculty meetings
- Coach/advise students as required
- Perform other duties as assigned
