

Type of Opportunity: Acupuncture

City: Silver Spring

State: MD

Details: We are looking for a part-time punk (community acupuncturist) at OurSpace Acupuncture in Downtown Silver Spring, MD (www.ourspaceacupuncture.org). Weekends (Saturday and Sunday) are our greatest need and people who can fill these shifts will be given highest priority. The ability to speak Spanish fluently is also a plus. Other qualities we are looking for in a new hire include:

-friendliness, warmth, and ability to connect with clients -flexible, easily adapts to new and challenging situations -capacity to be coached/trained -organized and committed to working a steady schedule

This position is perfect for a self-motivated person who is excited about treating lots of people quickly, understands the value of simple, but effective treatments, and is committed to providing affordable acupuncture to everyday people from all walks of life. Details about the position include:

-3 shifts per week on separate days to start -Shifts are 4-5 hours and we treat 6 patients/hour -The first week will be shadowing -The following week we will do some tandem treatments -Pay for the first two weeks is $19/hr. If you are catching on and patients seem to respond well to you, we can start you at $22/hr.

-Once you are seeing an average of 15 patents per shift for 6 weeks straight, we can increase your pay to $26/hr.

-The first three months are a probationary period. If for some reason you are averaging less than 10 treatments/shift after 3 months, we would need to sit down and reevaluate, making sure you fit the clinic and the clinic fits you.

-If things are still going well in six months, we can discuss additional shifts, salary options, and benefits.

OurSpace is a 501c3 non-profit, meaning that you can use your time here to qualify for federal student loan forgiveness.
