

Type of Opportunity: Health & Wellness Coaching

City: Silver Spring

State: Maryland

Details:

Spectrum Healing is looking for a passionate and skillful nutritionist to come aboard as we get ready to launch in the DC area.

Who and what we are looking for:

Valid State licensing in Maryland and DC, with legal liability insurance coverage Be knowledgeable in fertility/prenatal/ postpartum dietary issues and concerns Have experience or interest in working with clients who are suffering from issues of grief. Ie: sleep issues, emotional eating, suppressed immunity etc.

Be willing to learn new techniques or continuing education certification that are most helpful for our clients. Present skills and information with highest good intent for every client, and provide clients with a highly supportive experience. Be responsible for their own transportation, as well as, supplies and relevant materials Always presents themselves in the most professional manner and work to develop valuable relationships with clients.

What you will be getting when you join our team

Be working within a team dynamic that is led by a Massage Therapist with over 10 years of experience within the holistic health care world. A website and social media content that is designed to bring you committed and excited clientele via our Blog/Facebook, Twitter and more!

Online scheduling for clients, you will also be able to schedule your clients.

Online prepaid services, you will never have to worry about handling money or creating invoices.

Control over your scheduling. We know life doesn't always give you the best days, so if you need to block yourself off that's ok.

A HUGE commission split, with very competitive pricing within the industry.

Full support of your practice when you attend an amazing orientation.(I ONLY wish I had this offered to me back when) A company manual full of marketing tools/strategies that are designed to enhance how you will continue to grow and be the best at what you do.

Support and resources for client retention and professional development every six months.

A chance to meet, work with, and learn from other amazing healers, just like you.

Have confidence in knowing that Spectrum Healing was founded with the benefit and enthusiasm that every practitioner is unique and will be supported in their journey of service.
