

Maryland University of Integrative Health
Academic Policy and Procedures

No. 6000 Rev.: 1
Date: Nov. 19, 2020

Subject: Academic Integrity Policy

1. Purpose	1
2. Policy	1
3. Procedures	2
4. Approval and Revisions	2

1. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to list and describe violations of academic integrity as well as the procedures of investigation and possible sanctions for these violations.

2. Policy

Maryland University of Integrative Health is committed to academic excellence and to the belief that the attainment of academic success depends on each student’s commitment to personal honor and integrity. Each student shall to adhere to ethical principles in all of their academic endeavors in class, in clinic, in internships, in research, and in the presentation of class assignments, tests, and all written work. Any form of academic dishonesty, including cheating, plagiarism, and misrepresentation of work, is a violation of academic integrity. Students are responsible for understanding and avoiding academic dishonesty including plagiarism, whether intentional or unintentional.

Violations of Academic Integrity include but are not limited to the following:

- Cheating: Use of unauthorized sources, notes, aids, or information on an exam or on any assessment; allowing other individuals or entities to do one’s work and submitting the work as your own; submitting identical or similar work for more than one course without express permission from the instructor.
- Plagiarism: Submission of work without attribution or incorrect citation of sources for information that is not your own work. This includes borrowing ideas, a sequence of idea, and conclusions from another source, even if you have put the ideas “into your own words.”
- Fabrication: Falsifying or creating information or data; presenting information that is not collected or generated following standard methods of data gathering; failing to provide accurate accounts of the methods used.
- Falsifying Records or Documents: Any alteration of documents that impacts academic records; forging signatures for the purpose of authorization; submitting false or inaccurate credentials, altered or counterfeit records to Graduate Admissions, Student Affairs, or the Registrar’s Office.
- Unauthorized Records Access: Viewing or altering University records, whether physical or electronic is strictly forbidden.

- Violation of Confidentiality: Unauthorized sharing of patient/client information; discussing private information in public; unprotected storage of patient/client health information.

Students suspecting someone of violating any of the Academic Integrity tenets should report it to their faculty member or the Academic Department Chair. All charges of academic dishonesty will be investigated and resolved by the faculty and/or Academic Department Chair through the procedures specified below. Faculty members who find evidence of academic dishonesty will report it to the Academic Department Chair.

3. Procedures

3.1 Initial Process and Decision

When a faculty member suspects a student of a violation of academic integrity, the faculty member will notify the student of the issue and ask the student for an explanation within 48 hours. Following that correspondence, the faculty member will inform the student of the final decision and consequences, as well as notify the student of their ability to appeal. Depending on the severity of the violation, the faculty member may issue a sanction ranging from points deduction for the relevant section of the assignment to a score of "0" for the entire assignment. The faculty will copy the Academic Department Chair as well as the Dean of Students and Director of Student Affairs on the notification. If the faculty member feels that consequences beyond failing the assignment are needed, the faculty member can request an investigation by the Academic Department Chair. In such cases, the Department Chair's investigation and decision-making process is the same as for the appeals process described below.

3.2 Appeals Process and Decision

The student may choose either to accept the charge and consequence from the faculty member or to ask for an appeal within 72 hours through the Academic Department Chair. If requested by the student, the Academic Department Chair will investigate and will notify the Dean of Academic Affairs and the Associate Vice President of Student & Alumni Affairs.

The Academic Department Chair will begin an investigation of the allegation and collect statements from the faculty member, student, witnesses, or others who have pertinent information to share. This investigation will be completed within 15 business days from the date of the notification to the respondent.

At the conclusion of the investigation, the Academic Department Chair, in consultation with the Dean of Academic Affairs, will issue a finding in writing to the respondent with a copy to the faculty member and Associate Vice President of Student & Alumni Affairs. This decision will be within the 15 business days. If the Academic Department Chair confirms that a violation has occurred, they will impose a penalty after consulting with the Dean of Academic Affairs. Possible sanctions include a failing grade for the assignment, a failing grade for the course, and dismissal from the student's academic program. If the recommended sanction is dismissal from the program, the decision must be approved by the Provost.

4. Approval and Revisions

Approved August 16, 2018 by Provost & Vice-President Academic & Student Affairs, Christina Sax, Ph.D.

Revision 1

Modified the sanctions that faculty may issue. Sanctions beyond failing an assignment must be reviewed by the Academic Department Chair and Dean of Academic Affairs.

Approved November 19, 2020 by Provost & Vice-President Academic & Student Affairs, Christina Sax, Ph.D.