MUIH ALUMNI SUCCESS STORY

Olatokunboh Obasi
Master of Science in Herbal Medicine

Olatokunboh is a medical herbalist and founder of the Well of Indigenous Wisdom School which focuses on herbal medicine and indigenous traditions from around the world as modalities for health and healing. She works with individuals who struggle with chronic disease, depression, and nutrition. She is also a yoga and dance instructor and birth doula. Along with her herbal advocacy through the Wisdom School, Olatokunboh coordinates Herbalists Without Borders International.

IN RECOGNITION OF AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY MONTH:

AFRICAN AMERICAN CIVIL WAR NURSES

Harriet Tubman

Tubman escaped from slavery in eastern Maryland and helped with the Underground railroad. During the Civil War, she was appointed as the matron of the colored Hospital at Fort Monroe. As a nurse, she utilized folk herbal medicine that she learned while growing up in Maryland.

Susie King Taylor

As a slave, she was secretly taught to read and write. At 14, she and her family escaped slavery in Georgia. She volunteered as a Union nurse for the 33rd U.S. Colored Troops. She also taught soldiers who needed to learn how to read and write.

Many of the African American Civil War nurses were unpaid volunteers of the Union Army and fugitive slaves. Men and women served; however, men often transitioned to the army.

CAREER SERVICES

The MUIH Career Services Center is pleased to announce the launch of our two new job portals:

- Our MUIH Community Job Board features career opportunities that employers posted solely for the MUIH students and alumni. Employers and Alumni can also post career opportunities at the link above for free.
- Our Integrative Health Job Board is for integrative health employers and practitioners worldwide, and we hope it will become a destination for anyone trying to post or find opportunities in the field. This portal will be publicized by our vendor, YM Careers. Employers who post on this site will be charged a fee, and employers posting on the free MUIH Community site will be given a discount if they choose to post on both sites.

We hope you'll find the new portals helpful with your career development and/or recruiting needs. Please let me know if you have any questions or need any assistance.

Please contact me at rbrooks1@muih.edu if you need career assistance or if you are in a position to hire our students/alumni.

Regards,
Rob Brooks
Associate Director of Career Services
