Licensure and Certification Attestation Form

In accordance with 34 CFR 668.14(b)(32), Maryland University for Integrative Health's ("MUIH") Master of Science in Nutrition and Integrative Health program does not meet the requirements for licensure or certification in certain states, including AL, IA, KS MT, NV, OH, RI, SD, TN, WV, WI, WY, and as such may not enroll students from those states. Please visit <https://muih.edu/admissions/financial-aid/policies/student-consumer-information/> for additional information on state licensure and certification.

Individuals who reside in one of the above-listed states may not be admitted into the program unless, upon finishing the program, they intend to move to and seek employment in another state not on the above list. If you reside in one of the above-listed states, but intend to move to a qualifying state, please complete the attestation statement below.

For questions, please contact Dr. James Snow, Department Chair for Nutrition and Herbal Medicine (jsnow@muih.ndm.edu).

Upon completion, email the attestation form to admissions@muih.edu prior to completing your application.
